COLONIAL CHRISTMAS IN WILLIAMSBURG & WASHINGTON DC

Dec. 9-13, 2019 | 5 Days

Celebrate the joyous season of Christmas as our forefathers did 300 years ago. This holiday tour brings to life the spirit, sights and sounds of Christmases past. Christmas in Williamsburg is indeed festive with its colonial holiday decorations using real fruit, bayberry, chinaberry, magnolia, mistletoe, pine cones, boughs of cedar, balsam, camellia, holly and ivy. Costumed interpreters will transport you back to the 1700's in the colonial homes, taverns, Capitol, Governor's Palace, Bruton Parish Church, College of William & Mary, tinsmith, wiggery, grocer, bakery and more. Also visit Washington DC for a guided tour to view our great national monuments and memorials. Explore the Smithsonian Museums and George Washington's beloved Mt. Vernon. Savor a delicious dinner at famous Filomena's Restaurant. A special seasonal treat will be to see our National Christmas Tree and a performance at Historic Ford's Theater. Merry Christmas to all!
